“Still Life” Exhibition

PAC’s art exhibit at the Rocky Bluff Library, themed “Still Life” showcasing original artwork and photography, will be on display July through August. The artwork of Fran Kain, Kathy Friberg, Kerry Ringle, Nancy White, Steven White, and Sally Woolridge is featured in the current exhibit.

The featured artist for July 2019 is Mavis Jan-Lai. You can read more about Mavis on the PAC website.

The Parrish Arts Council features a monthly artist spotlight on the website. If you would like to be featured, please send an artist bio and photos of your work and a headshot to:

getinvolved@parrishartscouncil.org

Our mission is to cultivate an artistically inspired community, support artists, and preserve the rich heritage of Parrish and the surrounding communities through the arts.

Call to Members

We are looking for volunteers to help with committees, as well as planners/organizers, and assistance with marketing and membership. Please contact getinvolved@parrishartscouncil.org for information.

The next Call to Artists will be “Florida Flora & Fauna”

This photography exhibit will run for the months of September and October. This will be a juried competition with an entry fee. More information will be available on the PAC website.

PAC Partnership

PAC members will soon have opportunities to teach, demo, and display art with Fiorella Tea House & Flowers at 7628 N. Lockwood Ridge Road in Sarasota. July and August schedules are being planned.

EAST2WEST Art Market

The Artist Application Form for the 2nd Annual EAST2WEST Art Market has been created and is ready for distribution. The market will take place on Saturday, October 19th, 2019, 10 am to 5 pm and Sunday, October 20th, 2019, 11 am to 4 pm. The event location will be the Bradenton Area Convention Center, 1 Haben Blvd, Palmetto, FL 34221. Interested artists may find the application and event guidelines on our website: parrishartscouncil.org and on PAC’s Facebook page. PAC is currently seeking sponsors for the event. Reminder: the vendor fee increases beginning August 15th.
